

Our theme for this meeting is “Leading and Learning in Challenging Times”. Our featured speakers include the highly motivational speaker, Brad McCoy, Athletic Director for Flippen Sports, winning coach, and father of University of Texas two-time Heisman Trophy candidate, Colt McCoy. Brad is a highly sought after motivational speaker, mentor and coach. His speeches include personal stories both on and off the field that can inspire leadership at every level. Also speaking will be Dr. Rudy Crew, Professor of Clinical Education at the University of Southern California, former Superintendent of Miami Dade Schools, and lifelong educator whose career has spanned from the classroom to the chancellorship of the nation's largest school district, New York City Public Schools. Other outstanding presentations are on the program. This is truly an outstanding program that you will not want to miss.
